At Mid North Christian College, we place a high priority on communicating effectively and promptly with all our families. This is in line with one of our core values of partnering with families and impacts the way in which we respond to families in relation to student attendance. Student attendance rolls are marked electronically at the start and throughout the school day. The College follows up on unexplained/non-validated absences, notifies parents of unsatisfactory attendance, records details of unsatisfactory attendance and reports on full and part days of absence on semester reports for all students.
